ARRIVAL OF THE AZUMA
The accompanying illustrations show the Japanese warship Azuma, arriving in San Francisco with the body of the late ambassador on board and the removal of the body from the warship to the revenue cutter Golden Gate. Mr. Guthrie was appointed ambassador to Japan on May 29, 1913. He was credited as special ambassador also to represent the president and the people of the United States at the funeral of the emperor of Japan on April 7, 1914, and was personal representative of President Wilson at the coronation of the emperor of Japan on Sept. 30, 1915.

AZUMA'S FLAG AT HALF MAST

Several Provinces Proclaim Independence.

Demand Dissolution of Parliament.

(Associated Press Cable)

Peking, China, June 2.—The provinces of Anhui, Chi-Li-Hu-Pe, Che-Kien, Fo-Kien and Ho-Nan have proclaimed their independence and threatened to send a joint expedition to Peking to force the dissolution of Parliament and the reinstatement of Tuan-Chi-Jui as Premier.

Tuan-Hau-Lung Speaker of the Assembly, has resigned and gone to Tien Tsin to join the military government.

REVOLTING PROVINCES

The revolting provinces in China formed the major part of the south-eastern portion of the Republic and have a population of about 120,000,000.

The situation in China has been growing steadily more threatening since Premier Tuan-Chi-Jui was dismissed from office on May 23, following a riotous session of the House of Representatives, at which the deputies refused to pass a resolution declaring war on Germany.

The Parliamentary building was surrounded by a mob demanding war, and the President accused the Premier of attempting to coerce Parliament.

The military governors sided with the dismissed Premier and left the capital in a body.

SPREADING.

(Associated Press Cable.)

Amoy, China, June 2.—The provinces of Shen-Si-Shan-Si, Che-Kiang and Shantung are reported to have seceded.

According to the opinion held here, the secessions were not due to the international political situation, but were caused by the dismissal of Tuan-Chi-Jui as Premier.

Columbus, O., June 2.—Harry (Hank) Gowdy, catcher for the Boston National League baseball team, today enlisted as a private in the Headquarters Company, Second Brigade, Ohio National Guard, and will be called into service July 15.

ITALIAN MACHINE IS MOVING AGAIN TOWARD TRIEST

Germans Show Disposition to Continue Attacks on Aisne.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

General Cadorna has set his effective military machine in motion again, his report today showing a renewal of the Italian drive in the direction of Triest.

The new advance was scored on a two and a half mile front south of Castagnavizza, along which the Italians pushed something like a quarter of a mile nearer their goal.

The process of hemming in Duino, on the crest to the south, is in process over this immensely difficult ground on the Carso Plateau.

The Germans are showing a disposition to continue their attacks on the Aisne front.

They announce today the capture by surprise of a French position about one thousand yards long north-east of Soissons.

In reporting this engagement last night, the Paris War Office declared the Germans were expelled from all but a few elements of the advanced trenches in which they had gained a foothold.

The taking of more than 12,700 prisoners on the Franco-Belgian front during May, together with three guns, 211 machine guns and other war material, is claimed in the German official statement.

Eighteen stood as the death list in Oklahoma, while the loss of life in Kansas was placed at six.

Coalgate and Darke, both in Oklahoma, apparently suffered the greatest death loss, with eight known killed at Coalgate and five at Darke. The dead in Kansas were all between Morse and Coffeyville.

The storm seemingly reached its height at Coalgate, tearing a path from one to two blocks wide through the town, demolishing more than 400 homes and continuing for three miles into the country.

Forty persons were reported injured, and the property damage was estimated at from $500,000 to $750,000. Three persons were killed near Maricotta, Oklahoma earlier in the day and nine persons were reported injured in Seminole county, Oklahoma.

Crops were damaged by windstorm in Bryan, Love, Marshall and Carter counties.

WAR BUDGET IS COMPLETED

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

Washington, June 2.—The three billion dollar war budget, including provision for $750,000,000 for an American merchant marine, was today completed by the Senate and House conferees, who reached agreement on all questions.

The shipping legislation was re-shaped so the President will direct and be responsible for the acquisition of the merchant vessels, but specifying that the Emergency Fleet Corporation, headed by General Goethals, as well as the Government Shipping Board, must be used in the work.

The appropriation of $10,000,000, to be spent in the discretion of the Secretary of War, was stricken out.

THE CHILlicothe RED CROSS ACTIVE

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

Chillicothe, June 2.—The local chapter of the Red Cross wired $150 to Charleston, Illinois, and $100 to Mattpon, Illinois, in response to appeals for aid in taking care of the homeless as a result of the tornado last week.

STORM'S BIG TOLL OF DEATH

Twenty-four Persons Dead in Wake of Storm.

Great Property Damage.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

Kansas City, Mo., June 2.—Tornadoes that whirled through Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri yesterday resulted in the death of at least twenty-four persons, the injury of several score of others, and caused property damage estimated at more than $1,000,000, according to revised reports received at noon today.

The wind carried its ravages to the outskirts of Kansas City and spent itself as it passed on into southern Missouri.

Coalgate and Darke, both in Oklahoma, apparently suffered the greatest death loss, with eight known killed at Coalgate and five at Darke. The dead in Kansas were all between Morse and Coffeyville.

The storm seemingly reached its height at Coalgate, tearing a path from one to two blocks wide through the town, demolishing more than 400 homes and continuing for three miles into the country.

Forty persons were reported injured, and the property damage was estimated at from $500,000 to $750,000. Three persons were killed near Maricotta, Oklahoma earlier in the day and nine persons were reported injured in Seminole county, Oklahoma.

Crops were damaged by windstorm in Bryan, Love, Marshall and Carter counties.

BANDITS FLEE WITHOUT FIGHT

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

San Antonio, Texas, June 2.—Caranza troops reoccupied Ofinaga Friday afternoon without a fight with the bandits that had taken the town earlier in the week.

A message to this effect was received today by General James Parker, commander of the Southern Department. No further particulars were given.

LITTLE BOBBY BONNER IS PET AND COMRADE OF MARINE CORPS MEN

MASTER ROBERT BONNER "LITTLE SERGEANT" OF THE MARINES

While Napoleon was idolized by his soldiers as the "Little Corporal," tiny Robert Bonner, aged five years, of New York is the dapper "little sergeant" of the United States marines, and he proudly wears his sergeant's chevrons and short-shooter medal with all the dignity of a grownup sea soldier.

Bob has been chummy with the "soldier of the sea" all his life and was never fully satisfied until attired in full regulation uniform—red stripes yellow chevrons, medal, brass buttons and all—a costume that he is unwilling to take off even to go to bed. He tells his mother that regular soldiers never take off their clothes a statement that is not far from the truth, in France at least.

Fred Bonner, the father of the undisputed "youngest marine," is proud of the fact that the regular enlisted marines have accepted his son as a comrade.

GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS IS A PRISONER

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, June 2.—The arrest of Grand Duke Nicholas, former Commander in Chief of the Russian Armies, in consequence of Royalist riots at Tiflis, is reported in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch quoting advices received from Petrograd.

Although attacked by airplanes, the Circe returned undamaged to its base.

BRITISH AIR MEN AT WORK

Several tons of bombs were dropped last night upon Zebrugge Ostend and Bruges.

The airdrome at St. Denis, also was attacked.

QUITS POST

(Associated Press Cable.)

Petrograd, via London, June 2.—A. L. Konovloff, who resigned yesterday as Minister of Commerce and Trade, is quoted today by the official news agency as saying, in explaining the motives for his resignation, that the present Government should make way for a homogeneous Socialist government.

No successor to M. Konovloff has yet been named.

DISAGREEMENT.

Dispatches Friday night stated that M. Konovloff's resignation was due to a complete divergence of views with M. Skobelev, the Minister of Labor, concerning the economic and financial measures necessary in the present crisis.

ELEVEN HELD FOR TREASON

No Bail Allowed in Case of Accused Cincinnati Men.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

Cincinnati, O., June 2.—Eleven men were arraigned before United States Commissioner Adler this morning on charges of treason.

They were arrested last night, while it is alleged, they were distributing "Down with Conscription" circulars.

When they were lined up in front of the commissioner and two of them attempted to plead guilty, the commissioner said:

"I will not receive any pleas of guilty from you men. The penalty of death is prescribed for treason, and each of you shall have a trial, at which you may enter your pleas."

"As such a charge does not permit one so accused to be admitted to bond, I shall have to order you incarcerated."

Commissioner Adler then set their preliminary hearings for June 5, 6, and 9. The men were taken to the county jail.

GERMAN CONSUL HELD.

Among the alleged plotters of rebellion, the indictments named Baron von Roeswitz, former German Consul at Chicago; Gustave H. Jacobson and Albert Webbe.

Under the new arrangement all of Camp View remains in Union township district, as well as a part of the Siebern district.

All of Midland College district goes to Selden.

STAR SOUTH PAW JOINS THE LOCALS

Green, the sensational left-hander, who handled his curves like a big leaguer for the Dayton Garfields last Sunday, has been signed up by the Washington Athletics for the season.

With a strong pitching duo of the Reno-Green class, local fans may well expect a successful season for the Athletics.

The clash with the Lancaster Hammonds, the strongest team of that city that has ever decorated the diamond, tomorrow afternoon at the new ball park should be a thrilling match.

Frohnhofer at short and Lewis at third will be the only changes in the local line-up as it stood in the game last Sunday.

Green has made a glowing reputation for himself in amateur baseball circles in the Gem City and equally good work with the Athletics may be expected of him. The batteries for the game Sunday have not been announced, but it is likely that the south-paw will start the ball rolling.

PIKE COUNTIAN STUBS HIS TOE

William Matchland, hailing from the quiet hills of Pike county, was picked up by the police Friday night, in an intoxicated condition, and Saturday morning when he faced Mayor Oster he drew the usual fine. The man broke down before passing through the ordeal.

TAKEN TO WORKS EARLY SATURDAY

Hays Taylor, who was fined $200 and the costs for resisting an officer, was taken to the Xenia workhouse, Saturday morning, in custody of Chief Moore, being landed in that institution in time for breakfast.

NEW PLANS FOR NEW POSTOFFICE

Notice has been received in this city that because of the excessive bid recently made for constructing the new postoffice building on the corner of West Market and Hinde streets in this city, it will be necessary to draw new plans and to readvertise for bids.

The amount that can be placed in a building is about $60,000 and the only bid submitted at the recent call for bids was $78,500, and was for limestone or sandstone.

However, it will be necessary to construct of brick with stone trimmings in order to get within the fund available, and the new plans will be made with changes sufficient to bring the price within the limit of funds available.

As a result of the new plans and readvertising it is more than probable that no work will be done on the structure this season, although building the foundation late this fall is a possibility.

MERCHANTS DECIDED TO REMAIN OPEN ON REGISTRATION DAY

Following the decision of merchants in many other Ohio cities, virtually all Washington merchants will, it was announced Saturday morning, conduct business as usual on Tuesday, June 5th, registration day, and unless further decision to the contrary is made, business will move along as usual on that day.

A holiday this week, coming on the heels of adverse season, and with another holiday only a short time off, points in the decision to conduct business as usual.

Bankers, Saturday morning, were not fully determined whether they would remain open for the day or observe the holiday, but were inclined to close.

Postoffice hours will not be changed, all deliveries being made as usual and all rural carriers making their usual trips.

DECORATION DAY AT BLOOMINGBURG

Decoration Day at Bloomingburg was observed impressively with a very large crowd, many old friends coming home to help celebrate the day.

HAVE YOU A LIBERTY BOND?

The time within which you can get your name on the "Honor Roll" by becoming one of the subscribers to your government's first Liberty Loan, is short now.

The time within which Fayette County can obtain its proper place on the National Honor Roll is also limited now.

We must act promptly.

We have purchased a Liberty Bond—Have you?

If you have not already purchased a Liberty Bond—

THINK

This evening while you enjoy the plenty of this prosperous land.

Tomorrow, Sunday, when the prayers for Divine guidance are delivered in the quiet and the sanctity of your own home, of the manifold blessings this great government of ours has brought to each one of us.

THINK

Of the priceless blessing of liberty. What it has meant to our forefathers, what it means to us and what it means to humanity of today and what it means to generations yet unborn.

THINK

Of America's great opportunity and of America's great duty.

THINK

Of Bunker Hill and Valley Forge and of our boys of today—a million of them—in khaki who offer their lives that "Old Glory" may still wave as the emblem of Freedom to all the world.

THINK

How light is our part of the burden.

Our government and our bankers have made it easy to buy a Liberty Bond.

Everyone CAN buy a bond. It is not a question of ability, but solely one of desire.

Do you WANT to buy a Liberty Bond? If you do see your banker.

No one need be without a bond unless he so DESIRES.

We, the undersigned, have each purchased a Liberty Bond.

We urge you to buy a bond. We urge from the standpoint of income on the investment, we urge it because of the absolute security, we urge it as a patriotic duty, we urge it as an evidence of gratitude, we urge it as a religious duty.

We urge you to buy because it is a privilege to do so.

We urge you in memory of those who have suffered and died that the nation might live.

We urge you to do your part in the great plan of creation.

We urge you to invest a few of your dollars at a profit in order that our boys who follow the flag may be clothed and fed.

From every standpoint of right, liberty and justice, we urge you to buy a Liberty Bond.

In the prison camps the monotony of extended idleness is relieved by recreational games, moving pictures of an instructive nature and even by the introduction of prescribed courses of study.

The Work of Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. organization is making substantial increases in its facilities, looking to the proper discharge of its larger duties and availing itself of the boarder opportunities resulting from the entrance of the United States in the war.

The wonderfully efficient work done by the Y. M. C. A. organization and the splendid results obtained by its practical and attractive methods in times of peace is a guarantee of the tremendous results that will follow its activity now that the possibilities are so much greater and the need so much more pronounced.

In times of peace the mental, moral and physical development of the young men and boys of the nation is of paramount importance. In times of war the minds, the morals, and the physical welfare of the men who are "called to the colors" is of even more vital importance.

There has not yet developed in Christian nations a greater practical, every day, every hour working force for manhood building, a greater organization than the Y. M. C. A.

The organization has been active at home and abroad since the great world war began. We, of America, have been intensely interested and have taken great pride in its wonderful accomplishments.

We have been justly proud of its work in the army camps of Europe. Now that a million young Americans are to enter the war the enlarged plan of operation becomes the subject of direct concern.

We are looking to the Y. M. C. A. to carry the home and the home influence into the camps of our soldier boys here and abroad.

Second only and scarcely second, really, to the actual work of organizing the army forces of the nation is the work of the Y. M. C. A.

The field secretary of the organization is to talk to the people of Washington tomorrow night. Go and hear what he has to say. He will talk about one of the most tremendous works of this great time.

The Submarine Campaign

Reports from Great Britain as to food ship losses as a result of Germany's "ruthless" submarine campaign are conclusive that to this time the campaign has been a failure so far as effecting a food blockade of Great Britain is concerned.

Not only are the people of Britain not suffering for food but the losses in food ships have been only six per cent of the total, which the British Admiralty and food commissioners conceded as the limit of destruction.

All of which means that not only has the campaign fallen far short of Germany's boastful claims but it has fallen, even, below the estimated loss made by British authorities.

Something has evidently happened to the submarines—something is happening to them right along. That conclusion is fully borne out by conditions.

There has been a marked slowing up in the campaign since the United States entered the war and the commander of our fleet, upon arrival on the other side announced that he was ready for duty "at once."

It is encouraging to know that piracy has failed and it is pleasing to date the marked slow up in the campaign of frightfulness from the time our boys "got into game."

The Mails

The government is making every effort to place every department on a self supporting basis. The postoffice department is the subject of particular concern to officials and legislators.

The mistake is made, however, in concluding that the remedy is to be found in an arbitrary increase in postal rates.

That alone will work a hardship on the public and at the same time it will be found ineffectual as a relief from conditions that have, too long, prevailed.

There are too many thousands of tons of free matter and low class postage transported by the mails at the cost of the people.

Mail order houses are continually freighted the mails with catalogues and circulars for transporting which the people who send first class mail, pay a part and the remainder makes up the department's deficit.

Publishers abuse the privileges of the mails by sending tons and tons of periodicals and newspapers through the mails to fake subscription lists.

The law is plain on those matters. The violation should have been stopped long ago. It is doubly difficult to correct now in the multitude of other pressing matters.

What the postoffice department needs is not more law—not an increase of rates—so much as a proper enforcement of the laws we now have.

If the government could clear the mails of the "trash," the department deficit would be replaced by a credit balance.

Poetry For Today

FOR FRANCE!

The cheer she gave, the helping hand—
While bugle calls are ringing clear
For legions to advance,
Let all the war hosts lift a cheer
For scarred and valiant France.

Today she stands with lifted hands,
As erst of old we stood
Amid our torn and wasted lands
And needing brotherhood.

We saw our bitter plight and woe
And answered with a will;
Now let our loyal legions show
How love remembers still.

Oh, land beloved, let memory flood
Anew the battle line
Where alien valor tracked in blood
The field of Brandywine!

Pay what ye owe to France, oh, land;
That long uncanceled debt.
The cheer she gave, the helping hand—
Remember Lafayette!

ATTEMPT TO BURN XENIA PACKING CO.

A plot to burn the Eavy Packing plant in Xenia was discovered in time to frustrate the attempt, this week, and since that time the place has been kept under guard.

A time fuse which ended in a barrel of waste paper and shavings was discovered by an employee in time to prevent the fire.

Everything pointed to an effort to burn the plant, and German spies are believed responsible for the work.

BOYS AND GIRLS OF COUNTY BUSY WITH CLUB WORK

155 Youngsters Vie in Pig and Poultry Raising and Home Making—Liberal Prizes to be Given by Fair Board—Miss Maude Cox Heads Work.

One hundred and fifty-five bright farmer boys and girls are deeply interested in the pig, poultry, clothing and food clubs organized throughout the county, and under the direction of Miss Maude Cox, of Parrotts, who headed the prize pig club of the state last year, and because of her initiative and originality has been selected by the Fayette County Fair Board to devote her entire time during the remainder of the spring and summer to the commendable work.

The boys and girls interested in the work which means so much to them and the community in after years, range in age from 10 to 19 years, and there is hardly a single boy or girl in the entire 155 who is not enthusiastically at work to win one of the many valuable and attractive prizes offered by the Fayette County Fair Board for the best pigs, poultry, clothing and food.

There are eight pig clubs with a total membership of 45; eight poultry clubs with a membership of 65; three clothing clubs with 25 members and four food clubs with 25 members. From now until the Fayette County Fair the work will be pushed by each boy and girl, and Miss Cox will make frequent visits to each member, or be in touch with everyone so that she will know just what is being done.

Those familiar with the work, and the prominent part the Fayette County Fair Board is playing in the work by offering liberal prizes and co-operating with the Extension Department of the O. S. U., are unstinted in their praise of the Fair Board, which is doing much toward promoting interest in farming, home making and stock raising, and keeping the boys and girls on the farm by bringing them to a realization of what can be done.

All members of the various clubs, together with their parents and friends will meet at the Fair grounds on June 14th for a picnic.

ACHIEVEMENT IN BIG PRODUCTION

A much appreciated and out of the ordinary courtesy was extended to the press and a few privileged guests Friday afternoon by Manager Jamison in a private exhibition of "The Common Law," the big feature production, which will be shown at the Colonial next Monday and Tuesday, both matinees and evenings.

This superb picturization of Robert W. Chambers' novel has had phenomenal runs in all the large cities, showing for weeks at the Rialto, New York, to crowded houses, as it has everywhere.

"The Common Law" has been splendidly adapted to screen requirements in seven thrilling parts, and is undoubtedly one of the most noted photo plays. While perfectly staged, with an all round good cast, it owes its triumphal success to Clara Kimball Young, recognized as one of the greatest emotional actresses of the silent drama.

In the role of the artist's model, amid all the freedom of Bohemia and the Atelier, Clara Kimball Young not only holds the audience in the sway of her great beauty, but redeems from every suggestion of evil by the refinement and womanliness of her impersonation. Perhaps in none of her photo play acting has she ever left such an impression as in her wonderful portrayal of this lovely young girl who in the extremity of her poverty, becomes the artist's model.

Dramatic and unique are the complications of the play, working up to a thrilling climax and the solving of the problem involved in a way that both surprises and gratifies. Orchestral music added to the pleasure of the afternoon.

WITH TREASON

(By American Press)

Cincinnati, June 2.—Twelve men who are charged with distributing or in a plot to distribute seditious hand bills, denouncing conscription, were taken to the Cincinnati police station after being rounded up in the central western section of the city by local police. United States officials and citizens working hand in hand. The men who are being held at police headquarters will face a charge of treason. One of the men arrested gave his occupation as a printer, and another as a clerk, while the others registered at police headquarters as a factory employee.

BUSCH GARDENS OF LOS ANGELES

The famous Busch gardens, like a good many other large things, grow from a small beginning. When the late Adolphus Busch purchased his home on Orange Grove Avenue in Pasadena, the grounds were comparatively small. Behind the house ran a deep gulch, this gulch or arroyo as it is called, was an unsightly waste overgrown with ragged grass and underbrush, which became dry and brown in summer. Mr. Busch's first step was the redeeming of this useless and ugly ground into beautiful "sunk garden." The sides are terraced, and numerous short flights of steps with a little rest upon each terrace, lead down through pretty trellises to the bottom, where rich pansies, and giant poppies are set in the emerald turf, which covers the entire garden, and is so perfect that it looks at a little distance, like an expanse of unbroken moss. Here also are planted different kinds of palms, and other tropical growths.

After the completion of the "sunk garden" more ground was added, which extended through to the next street, and far below the Busch residence toward the west. There you wander through winding gravel paths, among stately trees, beneath rose grown arbors, and pause now and then to draw in a sharp breath of pleasure as some new vista of unexpected loveliness reveals itself; and occasionally you come upon a gorgeous peacock, swishing his brilliant plumage along some sequestered path.

The entrance to this part of the garden is through large gates opening upon the road at the lower end, at the right as you enter, against a bank of smooth grass, is the name "Ivy Wall," trimmed out in a tiny ledge—the name which Mrs. Busch gave to her beautiful home.

Motors are not permitted in the drives, but the gates are opened to pedestrians, from nine until five o'clock daily; and you may wander at will through these wonderful grounds. Any garden is enchanting, but fancy acres of gardens where money and skill without stint have been lavished, where almost every known kind of flower, and shrub, and tree, abound in its utmost perfection, and then you may form some idea of what a paradise it is.

In this upper garden are the large stables and garage, where the horses and motors are housed; and walking along the southern side of the "sunk garden," you can look across to the rear of the large residence, with its wings and chimneys, all gleaming in the morning sun.

After a time more ground was taken in across the road from the southern end; in this part is a large cactus bed, built of rocks on a sunny slope, where the curious growths seem as much at home as in their native desert; the blossoms of these rugged plants are amazingly delicate, their petals like the sheerest silk, softly tinted in pink, and yellow, and some a vivid crimson. In a distant part of this lower garden is water for the numerous water fowl, and there are old little seats thatched with dried palm leaves, and back near the entrance, miniature cascades dash under quaint bridges, and wind their way through mossy dells, which are so woody and natural that you find it hard to believe that it has all been made.

At a small summerhouse, built around a large oak, an old soldier keeps guard; there pausing to rest and chat, we were taken into his confidence, and lifting a trap door in the floor he showed us a particular friend of his, a large frog, who blinked at us like a solemn hermit, from his perch on the smooth trunk of the tree.

High upon the western slope is a white pergola, from whose eminence you may obtain a bird's-eye view of the gardens, with the mountains looming a hazy blue line in the background.

But perhaps the nicest thing of all is the old mill in the upper garden, which came about in the most delightful and casual manner.

Mr. Busch as well as being a multi-millionaire, was also a grandfather, and like most grandfathers, there was nothing he would not do if he could, for his little grandchildren, and it happened to be Mr. Busch's happy state that there were few things he could not do. One day when he was riding his small granddaughter upon his foot, he recited the well known nursery rhyme: "Banbury cross, Banbury cross, see the old woman get on to her horse."

"What is Banbury cross, grandfather?" asked the little girl. And Mr. Busch replied quite like the magician which he was, "We'll build one," and he did. Experts were sent to England, and the result was a replica of the real Banbury mill, churning water wheel, and all, even to the storks guarding their nests in the chimneys; with a market cross, just as it was in the days before the Puritans in a religious uprising destroyed it.

The approach to this charming little mill is through a fairylike glade, where the sun slants in long rays beneath the trees, and gleams on the foaming water which flows under a little bridge, that spans a small ravine.

Later Mr. Busch sent to Germany and procured lifelike figures made of weatherproof substance, which represent the various characters in the old nursery tales, these were placed about the lower garden; there is Red Riding Hood, and the wolf, approaching her grandmother's cottage, which is complete even to a miniature fence surrounding the yard; there is The Gingerbread House, which looks at a short distance for all the world, as if it and its inhabitants were real; there are giant toadstools set in an open space under the trees, and ready waiting for the fairies to sit upon; and coming suddenly around a turn upon a hillside, you encounter the seven gnomes, who inticed Rip Van Winkle to their bowling orgy; and it would not be surprising, if you should steal into these gardens upon some warm moonlit night, if you should hear the thunder of their balls as they played at ninepins, and see all these little people "come alive" to join with the elves and fairies, who disport themselves there "till dawn."

In the third year of the war, France staggering under terrible burdens, has subscribed to a new loan four billions of dollars—twice our first instalment. Shall we let this gallant nation, who is fighting our battles, shame us by her sacrifices?

Every rank and every occupation in France has eagerly pressed forward to aid the government with its savings. An American in France writes, "I have seen an aged street cleaner rest his broom against the counter of the bank as he clipped coupons from small government bonds bought with the savings of his toil. Alongside him were tired little seamstresses, women of wealth, hucksters—all doing what they could, by saving, to aid their beloved country."

ONE BIG WEEK FOR WERT MALLOW FRIDAY'S RECORD

Friday brought one great big day's work to Wert Mallow and the New Mallow Stable, at the Wooster races.

The stable had six horses entered in the day's races: Alation, taking second in the 2:19 trot; Kate McKinney and Black Wreath in the 2:08 pace taking first and second money respectively. "Kate" won in 2:13. Wert Compton drove Kate McKinney while Mallow handled the ribbons over Black Wreath.

In the 2:14 trot the stable started Ormond Rose, capturing second. The best time made was 2:17 3-4.

In the 2:16 trot F. A. L. represented the stable, taking third money. Best time 2:18 1-2.

In the 2:22 pace Pat Elder, driven by Mallow, took second money. Best time was made in heat captured by Pat Elder, 2:18 1-4.

At the conclusion of Friday's racing the total Mallow starts at Wooster for the week, was eight, and eight times the horses were "in the money."

One first, five seconds and two thirds is the record.

Pretty fair start off for the season.

Washington Lodge B. P. O. Elks

No. 129

Washington C. H., Ohio, June 1, 1917

Dear Brother:

President Wilson has designated Tuesday June 5th as Registration Day when, "the manhood of the country shall step forward in one solid rank in defense of the ideals to which this nation is consecrated."

Governor Cox has issued a proclamation designating this day as Ohio's "Call to the Colors," and urges "the service of organizations that can be useful in making our manifestations suitable and appropriate."

In line with this it is proper—very proper for our lodge of Elks to do their "bit."

We have about 75 members subject to registration. It will be an appropriate compliment to these younger Brothers, for the older members of our lodge to accompany them to the poles to register, and then later to entertain them with a 6 o'clock dinner at the Elks' Home.

TUESDAY, JUNE 5th, 1917.

At 3:30 p. m. all Elks assemble at the Home on South Main Street.

Promptly at 4:00 p. m. the parade will move, headed by the Washington Band of 25 pieces.

Those of our members who live in this city and Union Township and are subject to registration, as well as those Elks who register in other places, will be given positions of honor, the line of march will include all voting places in Washington C. H., and at each, the lodge will halt, open ranks and permit the Brothers who register in that particular precinct to do so.

After all voting places in the city have been visited, the lodge will pass our new Home lot on Market Street, where we will salute the Flag and from there march to our Home on South Main Street, where a complimentary six o'clock dinner will be tendered the boys who have registered, also enlisted.

A delightful evening's entertainment will be arranged for all Brothers.

TO OUR BROTHERS IN WASHINGTON AND

UNION TOWNSHIP WHO WILL REGISTER:

To you who will register, please refrain from doing so early in the day, reserve this sacred duty until the time above mentioned and in the way above planned. Let your older Brothers of the lodge be your escort. They will be glad indeed to honor you.

TO OUR BROTHERS OUTSIDE OF WASHINGTON

AND UNION TOWNSHIP WHO WILL REGISTER:

To you we suggest you register early in the day at your respective voting places, then come to Washington—be at the Elks' Home by 3:30 p. m.

You will be placed in the HONOR SQUAD along with the boys in Washington and Union Township who register.

You will be our guests throughout the afternoon and at the dinner.

The older members want this opportunity to honor you.

TO OUR BROTHERS WHO HAVE ALREADY ENLISTED:

This includes all branches of the service and the National Guards, with out respect to age.

We want you to be there too, to join the HONOR SQUAD—to be our guests—to be with the boys who register.

TO OUR OLDER BROTHERS WHO HAVE PASSED THE AGE OF REGISTRATION

The order stands for the Flag and the country—this is a "Sacred Solemn Hour."

A duty that devolves on our younger Brothers.

To us who have passed the allotted years of registration, it is a privilege to congratulate and honor our younger Brothers, so your committee urges all Elks to attend this demonstration and dinner.

The expenses will be paid by subscriptions from Brothers not subject to registration.

SPECIAL NOTICE:—TO ALL BROTHERS WHO WILL

BE REQUIRED TO REGISTER OR HAVE ENLISTED:

Please advise at once by phone or letter to any member of the committee, that you will register, or are an enlisted man, it is the desire of your committee to get a complete roster of those required to register or who have enlisted. Don't fail to do this.

The boys who have been admitted to membership in the order of Elks but not initiated will be asked to join us.

Let every Elk do his duty on June 5th.
